Our Ref: 88-CA-C/CIR/2005/02

Date: 23 November 2005

To: All Airlines Operating International Flights to/from the Republic of Maldives

Dear Madam/Sir

1. Further to our Circulars 69-CA-C/CIR/95/01 dated 06 February 1995, 69-CA-C/CIR/98/01 dated 11 June 1998 and 69-CA-C/CIR/2003/01 dated 17 February 2003, we wish to remind all airlines operating international scheduled and non-scheduled flights to/from airports in the Republic of Maldives of following for necessary action.
2. Narcotics are strictly prohibited in the Republic of Maldives. Those found guilty in possession shall be subjected to strictest penal actions irrespective of nationality or purpose of visit.
3. Therefore, all airlines operating international scheduled and non-scheduled flights to/from the airports in the Republic of Maldives are urged to make an in-flight announcement to bring this to the attention of passengers on arrival at airport/s prior to commencement of disembarkation of passengers.

Thanking you

Mahmood Razee
